

A Time to Embrace

Kira Wong and Peter Yung

Skirball Cultural Center, Los Angeles

PHOTOGRAPHED BY VCS PHOTOGRAPHY

Wedding Consulting by Kelly Lee Gin, Picture Perfect Events

THE INTRODUCTION Kira and Peter met one another at work six years ago. THE PROPOSAL While vacationing on the Big Island of Hawaii, the couple drove to the top of Mauna Kea and hiked to a crater that is a sacred place of worship for the people of Hawaii. It was at this hallowed place that Peter proposed to Kira. THE WEDDING The fusion of Asian and American cultures influenced the ceremony. While the venue and food had a significant American feel, the décor was of Asian influence. The Asian mood was especially noted in the floral arrangements that were based on the Chinese theme of the four seasons; bamboo, chrysanthemum, orchids and cherry blossoms. Floral Design City of Commerce Flowers Linens Elegant Designs Specialty Linens Cake Cake Divas and Vanilla Bake Shop Entertainment DJ Orbit Videographer Elysium Productions Gown Monique Lhuillier Bridal Shoes Naturalizer Bridal Jewelry Denny Wong Designs, Hawaii Hair & Makeup Artform Studio Formalwear Friar Tux Wedding Rings Platina Design Honeymoon Alaska Gift Registry Macy's, Pottery Barn THE NEWLYWEDS Snowboarding, hiking, and mountain biking bring Kira and Peter together. They currently reside in San Bernardino County where they both are civil employees.